

edilon)(sedra awarded contract for rail fastening of Metro Toluca

October 2016, edilon)(sedra were awarded with an important contract for the supply of 57 km double track rail fastening for the Metro of Toluca. This intercity train will connect the metropolitan centre of Toluca with Mexico City.

Toluca - Mexico City train design / Source: www.revistanoticias.sener

Client and engineers selected edilon)(sedra DFS (Direct Fastening System) following extensive track investigation. The solution includes excellent elasticity and unique durable characteristics, fully compliant with EN Cat C.

With this contract edilon)(sedra will generate a new important reference in Latin America which creates worldwide attention for its high tech rail fastening solutions. The new metro line will provide service to over 300,000 passengers a day and is expected to be in operation end of 2018. Four new stations and two new terminals are planned for. The opening of the line is scheduled for December 2018.

Intercity train Toluca - Mexico DF / Source: caf.com

Viaduct Toluca - preparations for the track installation

